

Orifjan Namozov, Ph.D.

Personal information:

Orifjan Namozov, Ph.D.

President, Innovation and Technology Management Academy (ITMA). CEO in Prague Development Center (PRADEC).

Education and training:

2006–2007 - CERGE-IE, Prague. Advanced study in Econometrics, Macroeconomics, Microeconomics

1999–2001 - Academy of Banking and Finance, postdoctoral research, Banking and monetary policy

1991–1993 - Tashkent National University, Ph.D. study

Work experience:

10/2013 – now President in ITMA (Czech Republic)

2009 –now CEO in PRADEC (Czech Republic)

2004-2006 researcher at Center for Economic Research (CER) - an independent non-profit research institution established jointly by the Government of Uzbekistan and the United Nations Development Program.

2002-2004 Chairman of the Council of Founders Center of Economic Research and Education (CERE Uzbekistan)

Selected publications:

More than 70 research articles published in Uzbekistan, Russia, Kazakhstan, Germany and Japan.

Orifjan Namozov, 2002. “Role of financial sector in East Asian catching-up market development / Selective experiences and implications for Uzbekistan”, Tokyo, Japan (Published, English). The study was published in Japan (Visiting Research Fellow of Japan Institute of International Affairs.).

Orifjan namozov, 2002. “China, WTO and world economy”, World Economy and International Relations, Issue 11, pp. 77-83, Moscow.

Orifjan Namozov, 1997. “Monitoring and Forecasting of Data on Monetary Policy”. Policy Advice on Forecasting and Statistics. TACIS Programme. -ifo Institute for Economic Research, April 1995, pp.97-100.

Participation in projects:

Researcher in international projects founded by UNDP, ADB, JICA, TACIS, Central European Initiative (CEI).

Organizer of conferences on Technology Transfer and Innovation (TTI), Internationalization of Higher Education (IHE)

Expert areas:

Management

Education

Knowledge transfer